

Indian Pathway Tours

Thursday, September 23 through Sunday, September 26

An incredible journey awaits your travels to Pipe Spring, the Paiute Indian Nation, Zion National Monument and Bryce Canyon.

Fours Days Journey on the Footsteps of the Paiute Nation

Restoring Beauty and Cultural Traditions

Cultural presentations are always a feature of our tours. We have a special opportunity at Pipe Spring National Monument, located on the Paiute Indian Reservation just west of Kanabe, UT. Members of the Paiute Indian Nation are encouraging young people to learn their traditional artistic heritage and will host a program just for us! Lunch will follow where we'll have time to ask questions and build friendships. (Ranger Brittanni and her son, Ben, are pictured.) As we travel together we'll learn more about the work NA are doing to restore what has been lost.

Ben Wero will dance the traditional dances of his native heritage.

Learn about Native spiritual beliefs and world view.

Spectacular Views at Zion and Bryce Canyon

Get ready for incredible photo shots of the canyons, sunrises, and sunsets, and of course, the starry nights! Be renewed inwardly as you gaze upon the beauty of God's creation and as you ponder your own spiritual journey.

Stopping Points

Best Friends Animal Shelter, Frontier Movie Museum, Parry Lodge, Jacob Lake Lodge and Trading Post, and Cameron Trading Post are the stopping points we'll make. You'll enjoy presentations, great shopping, and terrific food.

- Fare Includes: Bus, hotels, some meals, entertainment, guided tours and cultural education, hospitality, spiritual encouragement, and friendly service.

Four Locations~
Pipe Spring
Paiute Nation Reservation
Zion National Monument
Bryce Canyon

- Single Occupancy: $690/person
- Double Occupancy: $560/person
- Triple Occupancy: $525/person

Register Online or by Mail

Visit Us online: www.manywaters.net

Take a journey on Indian Pathways.
Carol Maher, ManyWaters
13382 W Desert Rock Dr, Surprise, AZ 85374

CONTACT US
623-537-1504
CHLOE GOINGS
REGISTER NOW